

Dallas TX March 21 1980

Dear Harold:

Just wanted to let you know how "our little friend" was getting along. Marshall sure missed the boat for not mentioning that Jack Ruby's last civilian act was to send her $25 bucks with a sentimental Mother's Day message!

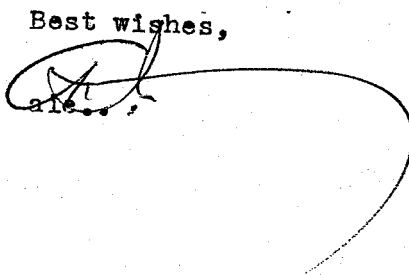

While the last 5 words in the article pretty well tell the story I have had admiration for Candy for the way she held up in all of her troubles. There is no doubt in my mind that someone wanted to put her away when they gave her the 15 year term. Also, when she was in prison her conduct was beyond reproach.

Also, you will recall that during ~~that~~ during the Ruby trial, Judge Brown took some pictures of Candy in the witness chair with his personal camera. Judge Brown's son, now Place 2 Judge in Dallas, and I have laughed about the incident.

This is the first day of spring but we have already had summer!!!

How about statement issued today by the State Department: "The hostages in Iran may be held another month, another year or for a decade". (Or, similar words) How degrading.

Best wishes,

A handwritten signature, possibly "A. J.", is followed by a large, elegant circular flourish that loops around and ends with a small dot.